YHA FOR GROUPS

YHA/Hostelling International is the world's largest budget accommodation provider. With over 4,000 hostels in more than 60 countries, YHA is the original and the best. As a not-for-profit membership association, YHA is committed to providing quality budget accommodation to groups and independent travellers.

Australia YHA, has over 100 hostels around the country – ranging from small bush hostels in national parks to multi award-winning properties in capital cities. A number of these hostels in NSW accommodate groups with specialised facilities, and there are hostels available for exclusive group usage.

All YHA hostels in NSW meet the highest standards in facilities, service and safety. They have a range of multi-share accommodation suited to groups, self-catering kitchens and well-priced catering options. As well as lounge, dining and communal social areas, some properties have meeting rooms facilities for groups.

Take a look at the range of hostels in NSW that might suit your group; there are large high quality hostels in the centre of Sydney and Canberra, while the Blue Mountains YHA is a multi-award winning hostel. Regional centres such as Coffs Harbour have purpose built hostels. Or, for smaller groups, why not opt for exclusive use under the Rent-a-YHA program.

To make a group enquiry and get a quote, either go online at yhagroups.com.au or call the hostel direct. YHA looks forward to welcoming your group to one of our hostels soon.

Hawkesbury Heights YHA

For an exclusive stay...

A location for every occasion... Rent-a-YHA gives your family, friends or group the chance to rent a whole building for a short break. Whether it's a family reunion, special event, or just an excuse to get a group of friends away together, Rent-a-YHA is ideal.

What's included? Wherever you choose to stay, you'll find safe, clean and comfortable accommodation. Most YHAs provide bed linen, kitchen equipment, cleaning materials, heating and lighting. The only things you need to bring are towels.

How do I book? Once you know where you want to stay and how many are in your group, call the YHA you want to stay at direct. Rent-a-YHA is particularly popular at weekends, during school holidays and Christmas and New Year so it's advisable to book early to avoid disappointment.

Do I need to be a member? There are two ways you can Rent-a-YHA. Firstly, have at least one member of the party (preferably the person making the booking) be an adult member of YHA (you can join online at yha.com.au/membership). The second option is to have your group register as a YHA group member. If your group is of ten or more and is a registered, sporting, social, educational or recreational group, you may be eligible for YHA group membership. This can be obtained through the YHA Membership & Travel Centre, ph: (02) 9261 1111.

Region: NSW	Location	Capacity	Phone
