As it is situated upon archaeological remains, Sydney Harbour YHA does not offer any car-parking on site. The parking options include street parking or use of a nearby parking station.

STREET PARKING

There are usually spare spaces within 300 meters of the hostel. Parking is metered and is limited to a maximum of 2 or 4 hours. The rates are:

$4.40 per hour

(Monday to Friday between 8am and 6pm)

$2.20 per hour

(Monday to Friday between 6pm to 10pm)

$2.20 per hour

(Saturday, Sunday and Public Holidays 8am to 10pm)

Free between 10pm and 8am.

Tickets are purchased from kerbside ticket machines and are to be displayed on the dashboard of your car.

Depending upon your arrival time, it can be cheaper to use street parking than the parking station.

Please note if parking on a Saturday or Sunday only at the parking station, it may be cheaper to not validate your ticket at YHA.

The closest parking station is Wilson Clocktower Car Park (55 Harrington Street) under the Clocktower Shopping Centre, one block downhill from the YHA. Entrance to the car-park is adjacent to 75 Harrington Street. Guests of Sydney Harbour YHA are able to pay the discounted rate at this car park only of:

$45 per 24 hours when you validate your parking ticket at the hostel reception.

This special rate is not valid at the Wilson Quay West Car Park also on Harrington Street.
