

DIRECTIONS FROM WYNYARD TRAIN STATION TO SYDNEY HARBOUR YHA

ROUTE WITH LIMITED STAIRS FOR PEOPLE WITH BAGS ON WHEELS

Exit at Platform 5 and walk up the stairs to the station. Follow the “Way Out” signs to York Street.

Go up the escalators to York Street and at the street exit turn left on York Street.

Walk along York Street and at first set of lights (near the Starbucks and Travelodge) cross to the opposite side of York Street. Continue north along York Street one block, to the second set of lights, Jamison Street. Cross at these lights and walk along York Street (there is now a park on your right hand side).

Walk to the next set of lights (Grosvenor Street) and cross the street. Continue heading north after you cross at the lights as Cumberland Street is directly in front of you - it is accessible by pedestrian access only; cars/vehicles cannot turn into this part of the street.

Walk one block along Cumberland Street, cross Essex Street, continue on Cumberland Street past the Shangri La Hotel until you reach Sydney Harbour YHA.

DIRECTIONS FROM CIRCULAR QUAY TRAIN STATION TO SYDNEY HARBOUR YHA

MOST INTERESTING ROUTE. SEE THE OPERA HOUSE AND HARBOUR BRIDGE.

PLEASE NOTE: This route should only take you 10 minutes to walk, but it is up a lot of stairs, so if you don't feel up to it, catch a taxi or use the Wynyard Station route on next page.

The Rocks is a unique part of Sydney and has many hidden pockets accessible through pedestrian laneways and staircases. Follow these instructions for the most direct pedestrian access to the Sydney Harbour YHA.

Exit Circular Quay train station on the harbour side. Turn left and walk to First Fleet Park. Walk across the park and up the stairs to George Street. Cross over George Street at the pedestrian crossing to the right of the stairs and turn left. Walk a few metres to Globe Street (which is now all paved and does not have traffic). Turn right into Globe Street and walk through the paved street up to more stairs. Walk up the stairs to Harrington Street. Cross the road. Turn right and walk down the street until you reach a set of stairs to the left of the footpath that go further up the hill. There is a sign at the base of the stairs that directs you to Susannah Place Museum. Walk all the way up these stairs – there are two flights - until you come to Gloucester Street. The Sydney Harbour YHA is directly in front of you.

If you are arriving before dusk, walk straight up the stairs along Cribbs Lane and follow the signs to reception. If you are arriving after dark, turn right and walk up Gloucester Street (Cribbs Lane is closed at night). Once you reach Cumberland Street, turn left and walk until you reach Sydney Harbour YHA's entrance.

You made it!! Come on in and enjoy Sydney Harbour YHA...
