I am an experienced leader with a track record of growing organisations that balance profit with purpose. I have led BCorp™ accredited businesses, was an early signatory to 1% for the Planet™ and recognised as a Great Place to Work™ and a top 50 workplace for Women in Australia in 2025/26. I have worked across industries domestically/internationally with depth of experience across commercial management, hospitality, international business, progressive people leadership and ESG impact. I joined the YHA board in 2024, am Chair of the Strategy and Innovation Committee and have served on the People and ESG committees. I have extensive experience in working with boards and am a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

I have served as a YHA Director since 2022 and am passionate about the power of travel to educate, broaden perspectives and connect communities. I am a senior lawyer and experienced company director with marketing qualifications and over 25 years' global experience in property financing, investment and funds management across the property, hotels, telecommunications and technology sectors. With my expertise in corporate governance, compliance, risk management and finance, I bring careful stewardship and balanced judgement to the Board. It would be a privilege to be re-elected to continue to support YHA's long-term sustainability while staying true to its social purpose, and to contribute to its property strategy, financing needs and the successful delivery of the Railway Square project.

With over 30 years' executive experience in Australia's travel and tourism sector, I have served as CEO, Managing Director, and General Manager for global tourism brands. I currently sit as a Non-Executive Director of Destination Sydney Surrounds North, supporting regional priorities aligned to the Destination NSW visitor economy strategy. I hold an MBA with distinction in corporate governance and am an AICD member bringing strong governance capability across complex shareholder environments. My expertise spans strategy, stakeholder engagement, brand developments, and commercial distribution, underpinned by disciplined financial oversight and risk management. I am focused on contributing strategic clarity, commercial insight and purpose led leadership to support YHA's continued relevance, market strength and long-term organisational resilience.
