Here's why YHA is perfectly placed to cater to your group.

Value-packed group pricing:

YHA offers competitive pricing for group bookings, ensuring cost-effective options for groups of any size. By booking entire rooms for your group with full access to property amenities, YHA can help groups keep costs down, maximise value, and help manage your budgets with confidence.

Additional safety and security:

Recognising the importance of safety, especially for young groups, select YHA properties offer the option to lock off entire floors or even rent the entire property to provide added privacy and easy supervision by group leaders. YHA have strict child safety and group policies in all properties for enhanced safety.

Affordable group catering:

YHA offers continental breakfast and affordable in-house catering packages (including lunch and dinner) for groups at most properties. As self-catering is not available, these convenient meal options provide the best value. The menu is fresh, seasonal, and free from nuts and seafood, with alternatives for vegetarian, vegan, and allergy-sensitive diets.

For specific accommodation and catering needs, you can connect with the YHA Groups team to customise your group stay and explore available options.

RENT-A-YHA

Exclusive property access for your group

At select YHA properties, groups have the option to reserve and secure entire floors or book the entire property through the Rent-a-YHA program. This option is perfect for larger groups, or those seeking added privacy while still enjoying access to YHA's shared facilities.

Here's how Rent-a-YHA and floor bookings work for groups:

Dedicated use of space:

By booking a whole floor or the entire property, your group gains access to accommodation area and common areas just for your group, ensuring privacy and security without any other guests staying on the same floor. This setup is ideal for groups that require a dedicated space without sharing with other guests.

Customisable stay:

Whole-property bookings allow for customised arrangements in sleeping, dining, and recreational spaces. The YHA Groups team can provide information that can help you tailor your stay to your needs, including room allocations, meeting spaces, and activity areas to suit the group's schedule and requirements.

Enhanced group safety:

With dedicated secure spaces, organisers can easily oversee the group and maintain safety protocols, especially useful for youth or school age groups, or trips that require higher levels of supervision.

Self catering:

Rent-a-YHA groups enjoy exclusive access to the property's facilities, including onsite kitchen facilities, giving you the freedom to manage your own meals and catering. Booking the whole property also provides the flexibility to plan activities, and events on-site, which isn't normally possible when sharing the space with other guests.

The YHA Groups team can assist with details, availability, and customisation for whole-floor or Rent-a-YHA bookings so that your group's stay meets its unique needs.
